Democratic Mass-Meeting Saturday after a well-attend ed meeting of the Democrat of Appomattox county was held in the courthouse here Col. Joe Button, of Richmond presiding, the following resolutions were adopted: By S. L. Ferguson-Resolved we endorse the Democratic administration of our national government under the wise and statesmanlike leadership of our president, Woodrow Wilson.

We esteem it a privilege a well as a duty to congratulate and felicitate our distinguished representative in congress, the Honorable Henry D. Flood for his conspicuous services to his country. He has aided with great ability and unflagging zeal all the foreign and domestic policies of the chief of our party, and has been in the forefront in promoting the measures of this Democratic administration. We extend to him our warm and hearty sup port for another term in the House of Representatives. By L. W. Throckmorton-Re solved that the Democrats of Appomattox county in mass meeting assembled this 8th day of May, point with pride to the very efficient, able and capable officers of this county, and each of the magisteriol districts hereof, and of the efficient, progressive and economic ad ministration which the Democratic party through its officers has given to the taxpayers and people of this county. By S. L. Ferguson—Whereas the death of the Senior Senator of Virginia, the late Thos. S. Martin, has occurred since the Democrats of this county las assembled, therefore be it now Resolved, that the Democrats of this county feel keenly his death-will miss his able coun sel, characterized in State and National affairs with distin guished ability and recognized statesmanship By R. F. Burke - Resolved that the seven votes to which Appomattox county is entitled in the Democratic State Con vention to be held in Roanoke on the 19th of May, be cast by the Delegates who are present in that convention on all ques tions as a majority of the dele gates present may determine By J. R. Horsley-Resolved that the delegates from this county to the Roanoke conven tion be instructed to vote for the re-election of Hon. R. A James as chairman of the State Democratic committee and for the re-election of Hon. Carter on the National Democratic By C. W. Smith - Whereas, the Democrats of Appomattox county have been fortunate in electing to the Legislature of Virginia a typical Virginia gentleman, a man of high character, broad experience, intelligence, ability and sound legislative judgment, who has faithfully and efficiently repre sented the people of Appomat tox county during the last session of the Legislature, and among other measures has introduced and secured the passage of some important State People's ideas are changing, too.

They're beginning to figure out how much it is costing them to keep a car. And the man who is doing the greatest amount of figuring is the man with the moderateprice car.

There still seems to be a notion in some quarters that any tire is good enough for a small car.

That's not what the man who owns it thinks.
